Righteous Dopefiend

- Ch 1: Define "intimate apartheid." Describe the ethnic hierarchies on the street scene. Give an example of how US racial divisions were "embodied" through the habitus of the Edgewater homeless. (Also Ch 3- "racialized habitus")
- Ch 2: Describe Tina's life. How can we understand her involvement in sex work in the context of her past, and in larger gendered power relations in the US?
- Ch 3/9: Describe the public health system these addicts encountered. How do the authors critique this system?
- Ch 3/5: Define/describe the "moral economy of sharing." Give 3 specific examples of income-generating strategies among the Edgewater homeless.
